Open Book Coffeehouse 2009-2010 Schedule

Sat., Sept. 19, 2009

Erica Wheeler

Admission $10

"Her lyrics evoke all the trails we've hiked, the streams swum, the trees climbed, and all the moments of growth enjoyed there--the silent epiphanies, the stolen kisses--without ever sounding preachy."

Yankee Magazine

Sat., Oct. 17, 2009

Marc Douglas Berardo

Admission $9

"These are real-life stories and, in the hands of a good writer, all that more believable. It's not surprising that folks are paying attention to Berardo. He's been a winner and finalist in a lot of songwriting contests. He deserves it."

Rambles Magazine

Sat., Nov. 21, 2009

Mad Agnes

Admission $10

"Masters of intricate, dynamic arrangement and precise polyphonic vocals, the group performs with a sense of fun – deceptive ease...one of the most capable and entertaining ensembles on the folk circuit today."

Linda J. Morris, Dirty Linen

Sat., Jan. 16, 2010

Beacoup Blue

Admission $10

"This powerful yet gentle father-and-son duo gets their audience lost in reverie with arrestingly soulful blues-based music. Their original songs blend folk, R&B, jazz, country, and bluegrass together in songs that might be classics, or might just sound like it."

Sarah Craig of Caffe Lena, America's Oldest Continuously Running Coffeehouse

Sat., Feb. 20, 2010

Abi Tapia

Admission $7

"Beauty weaves strong Southern influences with an old-school 1970s country-folk sensibility, mastering the understatement in her songs and avoiding cutesy-rootsy overkill with intelligence and a fine tenor on this turning-point recording."

Austin Chronicle

Sat., Mar. 20, 2010

Open Book

Admission $10

Yes, Open Book plays the Open Book Coffeehouse!

"Open Book's songs build on Rick and Michele's beautiful and entwining harmonies, achieving an incantatory power."

Jim Motavalli, WPKN Radio

Sat., Apr. 17, 2010

Reed Waddle

Admission $7

"This Paperback Town is Waddle's 3rd full length album, but you'd never know it by listening to it ... It sounds like the work of a life-long musician, writer & singer. It's got depth, breadth & muscle."

Krissie Callahan,
Justanother.org.com

Sat., May 15, 2010

Jenny Reynolds

Admission $8

"Reynolds has a touching and mournful tremble in her voice, and some grit too, on this collection of sweet and driving country-folk-Americana... terrific new CD..."

Sarah Rodman, The Boston Herald

Sat., June 19, 2010

TBA

Admission TBD

"Certain to be fun evening, but not confirmed at press time. Hold the date!"

Emily, Open Book Coffeehouse Coordinator.
