

World War II

Born - Unknown Stoughton, Massachusetts

Entered Service – November 1943 Canton, Massachusetts

Pvt. Carlyle M. Packard
U.S, Army
Age 28

Carlyle was born and raised in Stoughton and lived at 869 Park Street. After he married he moved to Canton and lived at 621 Washington Street. Before entering the Army, he was employed by the Avon Sole Co. in Avon, MA. In November 1943, Carlyle was inducted into the Army. He was wounded in France July 4, 1944 and after he recovered he returned to active duty. He was killed in action on September 8th. Unfortunately, more detailed information about Carlyle Packard's service life was not available.

Date of Death – September 8, 1944 France

Buried - Unknown